Michelle Cowin

Michelle was first licensed to judge Dobermanns in 1987 and Border Collies in 1990 as single breeds. This was followed by approval for the Utility Group in 1993, Gundogs in 1995 and Non Sporting in 2004. In recent years, Michelle has focused more extensively on judging than exhibiting, gaining approval for the Working Group in 2023 and currently enjoying the ongoing study of the Toy Group.

Under the Alldobe prefix, Michelle established herself as one of Australia's leading Dobermann breeders, achieving numerous prestigious breeder/exhibitor accolades. Highlights include Best in Show at the National Dobermann Specialty in 2003, Best in Group at the Sydney Royal, along with multiple Specialty and All Breeds Best in Show awards with a variety of dogs and bitches.

In recognition of her success and contribution to the breed, Michelle has been invited to officiate at many Australian Dobermann Specialties as well as internationally in New Zealand, the United States and Brazil.

Michelle has also assisted her sister Alison with the breeding and exhibiting of Border Collies under the highly regarded Bordalace prefix and was honoured to judge a Border Collie Specialty in her home state.

A Life Member of the Dobermann Club of NSW and a member since 1978, Michelle has made a significant contribution to the dog world over many decades. During formative years within the sport, she served as Secretary of the National Dobermann Council (Australia) and was a foundation member of the Utility Dog Club of NSW. She remains a strong advocate for giving back to an activity that brings so much enjoyment and fulfilment.

Michelle is deeply honoured to have been invited by the Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club of NSW to judge the Open Show for such a significant breed within the Toy Group.
