Mr Patrick McManus (USA)

Breed Class Judge

My love of pure-bred dogs has been a lifelong affair. My Grandfather bred English Setters, my Uncle bred English and Irish Setters and from the age of thirteen, my family and I bred and exhibited Golden Retrievers. By the age of fifteen, my Aunt saw the pleasure we took in these pursuits and asked that I might find her, and my Cousin, a Pug so they could join us in this wonderful world. That decision was to change my life forever.

With the help of Polly Lamarine we were lucky enough to find a lovely and very successful young dog and by the age of sixteen I was deeply involved in the Pug world. With the help of Ms. Lamarine, her Mother Jane Lamarine and the highly respected Mary Shipman Pickhardt of "Sabbaday" fame we were off and running! My love of our Dog Show world escalated and I soon found myself working for "the best of the best" in handling, grooming, conditioning and caring for a

Beside my own dogs, I was soon employed by Mr. Terry Childs, a true Toy Master where I learned about hard work and inspiration. By nineteen, I was in California working for Tony and Bea Gwinner. They were Sporting and Toy specialist who were profoundly influential in my learning curve. After Mr. Gwinner's untimely passing I was then working for Jean Lade who worked with drop coat breeds. All of this happened in the proverbial "Old Days" were the young started with a scooper and slowly progressed up the ladder to maintaining, caring for and eventually grooming and exhibiting dogs in the manner of true apprenticeship... a lost art indeed!

Time brought me into the Pug World in capital letters. I eventually found myself as handler and manager of the very well respected "Salty Dog" Pugs of Ms. Pat Wehrle. There we succeeded and did our best to promote and improve our wonderful Pugs. Life's rich pageant led me at last to the "Grand Dame" of Pugs, Mrs. Margery Shriver and her world renown "Sheffield" Pugs. There I was handler, manager, mid-wife and all round "Go To" man. We maintained the Pug World's most noteworthy stud teams, bred outrageously consistent litters, worked toward our breeds future stability and did our best to promote and assist the Pug Dog Club of America in any way we could.

Beside my work in pure-bred dogs, I'm also an artist who through painting and drawing have been lucky to be appreciated and collected by some of our best dog authorities and breeders. I like to think this journey is a work in progress and never fails to impress and inspire me on a daily basis.

Kerry Rolfe (NSW)

Property Judge

I have always had dogs around me all my life. When I turned 14 my Grandmother thought it was the appropriate time for me to have my own dog so she took me to see Mrs Neave in Sydney and brought me a lovely apricot toy poodle puppy to show and that was when the show bug commenced.

Over the years I have shown as well as Poodles, German Shepherds, Collie Roughs, Cavalier King Charles Spaniels and Affenpinschers. I have made up in excess of 50 Australian Champions and shown to Best In Show and Best In Specialty Show both under my prefix "Elcavel" and other breeders prefixes. I have also competed in Obedience trials with all but the Affenpinschers.

I have been a member of ACTCA since 1973 to 1978 (let membership lapse due to family commitments then rejoined in 1984)& Dogs NSW since 1984 have also assisted with show and various club functions with many clubs over the years.

I attained my Australian National Kennel Club Toy Licence in November 2016 and have since enjoyed judging appointments in NSW and ACT both at Group and Generals Specials level.

Bob Dunn

24th September 1947 – 31st December 2016

The Troycole prefix was born in the 70's when Mum and Dad purchased their first boxer.

After many successful years showing boxers it was time to look at another breed of dog but something smaller for mum to handle.

In 1993 at a country show in Sofala we were camped next to a couple with a pug, my love for pugs began that weekend and soon welcomed our first pug into our home and hearts "Aust CH Lochiang Beau Jangles" (Beau).

Bob with Max

After purchasing Beau mum and dad decided if we are going to get into the breed we really need to attend more shows and research the breed to get the best stock to start Troycole Pugs.

Mum and dad contacted Nola Mulligan of Lowcott Pugs and a great friendship began, we then welcomed CH Lowcott Sadie into our home. In 1996 mum and dad won their first Best In Show at the Pug Club of NSW with Beau. Mum and dad used Am/Aust CH Albelarm Legal Eagle owned by Julie and Carl Gotch. This mating produced their very first Troycole to win a Best In Show at the Pug Club of NSW which was CH Troycole Law and Order owned by Pat Gifford. Two years later his litter brother CH Troycole Mr Pinkerton also won Best In Show at the Pug Club of NSW.

Joy & CH Lochiang Beau Jangles

We imported from Penny Calman in NZ, NZ CH Glomar Rockabilly Rebel (Billy). Lee-ann and Billy had huge success and he was titled in 1 weekend of showing taking 4 Best In Groups and also was a Best In Show winner at the NSW Pug Club of NSW. Billy was dad's heart dog and when we lost Billy we lost a bit of dad.

In 2007 we imported Am Ch / Ch Wrinkles Show N Tell, he was our first black pug. He was titled within 4 weekends of showing and sired some high quality babies. Other Troycole pugs that have been successful at the Pug Club of NSW winning best in show are Troycole Nice Surprise owned by R & J Dunn/ C Craig, CH Troycole Where's the sauce owned by C Craig and CH Troycole The Last Samurai owned by J Dunn/ L Johnson. Over the years of involvement with the breed mum and dad always looked to better the breed by being selective with their breeding program.

Bob & Leeann @ SeaWorld

Dad was involved with the Pug Club of NSW on an executive level and held the President's position for multiple years. He was the first one to not follow the normal and fly in an international judge for the prestigious Easter Show. He was so proud that he had achieved this for the club and the members/exhibitors. Dad was also heavily involved with stewarding for local clubs in the Newcastle area. Mums got him involved because he would go to shows and just annoy her so she told him one day to go to the office and see if there was any way he could help out. He was often put in the working dog ring so he was as far away from mum as possible.

You never saw dad in the ring showing but he adored any pug that called Troycole home. You'd walk into the house and he'd have one of the pugs on the lounge with him, or one beside his bed if not in their bed. Dad loved all aspects of the dog world; his phone would never stop ringing. He had to keep up to date with all the going on's and who were the winners from the shows. Deep down he loved the show scene even though he whinged and complained but that was just dad

Our family appreciates the Pug Dog Club of NSW in honouring Dad with this memorial show.....

RIP Dad, the pug world and dog world as a whole do miss you and so do the pugs at Troycole.
