Judges' Resumé:

Mark Johnston

Mark showed his first boxer as a child in 1976, and has been actively involved with this fabulous breed ever since. From those early beginnings, Mark became the driving force in the family's interest in Boxers. Blueprint Boxers have gone on to become one of the most successful kennels in Australia, having produced a long line of breed club CC and BIS winners. He has also had an interest in Miniature Schnauzers. Mark is an all breeds judge and is married to Dayna.

Dayna Johnston

Dayna has had a lifetime of involvement breeding, exhibiting and loving purebred dogs, born into a family with a background with Scottish and Irish Terriers, and English Cocker Spaniels. She has bred Australian Silky Terriers for the last 37 years under the Gayplad prefix. Dayna has also bred Pomeranians and Pekingese and breeds Miniature Poodles in partnership under the famous Coifico Prefix.

David Staines

David started showing Dalmatians in 1976 and then started breeding under the LITEFLITE Prefix. He has also shown and bred Bullmastiffs and has enjoyed many major BEST IN SHOW awards. As an Architect he has always appreciated 'the well designed' and 'the well built'. In judging there is no greater thrill for him than being able to reward top quality dogs of all breeds - dogs that have been well bred to be well built.

Lance Wright

Lance is a well known in Qld as a breeder and exhibitor of Standard Poodles under the Voila prefix. He has also had a background with the Pekingese breed.
