David Shields – Kennel "Wilholme" - UK

I first started showing Cocker Spaniels in 1971. The "Wilholme" kennel was based on the lines of two of the top parti-coloured kennels of the time, the "Reklawholm's" of Pru Walker and the "Goldenfield's" of Doreen Robinson and the prefix was first registered in 1973. There have been many Show Champions and CC winners bred and shown over the years, with the last been the blue roan dog I imported from Ireland and was made up in the UK, "Sh.Ch. Baysway Davy Boy". He was also Reserve BIS at Boston Championship Show in 2008. Although not active in the breed at present they will always be my first love.

As well as the Cocker Spaniels, along with my partner Irene Glen, we have also had great success showing German Shorthaired Pointers under the "Wilholme" kennel name since 2001, including winning the Bitch CC at Crufts in 2010 and 2011 and making up three Show Champions in the breed. Irene is also a partner in the Bessalone prefix and I get involved showing the Italian Spinone and in 2015 we made up the youngest ever Show Champion in the breed, Afterglow Hashtag Scandal at Bessalone.

My involvement with terriers started in the early 1980's when I got my first Border Terrier from the Lynsett kennel. I continued showing the Borders for around ten years making up a champion and breeding Wilholme Regal Reform, a CC winner but also the sire of Ch.Blue Print of Brumberhill who is behind many of today's top winning Borders in the UK.

My first judging appointment for Cocker Spaniels was in 1978 at Open Show level and I first awarded CC's in 1987. I have now awarded CC's in the UK on sixteen occasions, with the highlight judging the Cocker Spaniel bitches at Crufts in 2008. I also judged the Cocker Spaniel males at the World Dog Show in Milan in 2015. My first CC appointment in Border Terriers was in 1997.

Judging these days seem to take up more of my time and it has taken me to all parts of the world to judge including most of Europe, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand since my first appointment judging Cocker Spaniels in Sweden in 1985.

I am now passed to judge both the Gundog Group at Championship Show level in the UK as well as the Terrier Group.
