New Classes at the Champ Show this year:

Class 14 – Bred By Exhibitor –

Class 14 is judged between 10 Aust Bred & 11 Open – Do keep that in mind!!

A handler of a dog entered in Class 14 must be;

1; the breeder, part of a partnership which bred the dog, part of a kennel that bred the dog or proprietor of a company which bred the dog; and

2; The owner, part of a partnership which owns the dog, part of a kennel that owns the dog or proprietor of a company which own the dog;

And the dog must be handled by such a qualified person for all the classes including in group and show.

To further clarify, “run offs” are a class, change of handler will not be accepted.

To avoid disappointment, please only enter a dog in Class 14 if you can take it through ALL of its classes.

Class 12– Veteran – This is the competitive Veteran class, winners will be able to compete for CC and BOB etc... the veterans are judged after class 11 Open.

Raffle:

We are having another great raffle this year.
Please show your support and buy a ticket or two

Silent Auction:

This year will be our first silent auction, show your support and casually bid on some great items that will be offered. Bidding will open at 9am and close at a random time after the lunch break. Payment & collection of items will be required by 3pm.

All you need to do is head up by the secretary's office and write your bid & contact number on the sheet of paper that corresponds with your item. Good Luck!

Heart Clinic – All Breeds Welcome:

The Hound Club of Victoria will be running an Echocardiogram Clinic with Dr Richard Woolley onsite at the 2018 Championship Show.

Cost is for each echocardiogram;

HCV MEMBERS $220.00 | NON MEMBERS $240.00
(this includes $20 non-refundable booking fee)

This is excellent for those wanting to screen for cardiac disease prior to breeding.

Owners will receive a certificate on the day stating the echocardiographic findings.

Limited places available. Bookings through the Hound Club of Victoria.

Judges CV's:

Below are the CV's our judges have provided for us, it is Mrs I Siil's first visit to Australia, although not breeding hounds she has had involvement with them.

Mr R Reynolds is a hound specialist.

Mrs I Siil (Estonia)

I got my first dog – medium size Poodle - in 1990, after many years begging my parents to buy me a dog. Since then I have been crazy about dogs, dogshows, training dogs etc and had Afghan Hounds to show.

I started to work as a ring steward in 1992 and in 2000 I started my studies at show judge course.

I became a judge in 2002 and my first breed which I got licence for was Poodle.

At the moment I have rights to judge all breeds in FCI groups 4,7 8,9, 10 and half from groups 3 and 5.

My first litter under prefix CEN CLARENCE'S was born in 1994, it was litter of white medium size Poodles. I had a long break in breeding as I have had mostly males in my home. I continued breeding in 2014, this time with black miniature poodles.

In 2010 I welcomed another new breed in to my home – Löwchen, since that I have always had one Löwchen at home.

I have been judging in all three Baltic and four Scandinavian countries, besides that in Russia, Hungary, Romania, Ireland, Germany, Belgium, Ukraine, Israel, Switzerland, Italy, Greece and some others.

I have been honoured to judge Poodle specialities in many contries, medium size poodles at World Dog Show in Budapest 2014 and Toy Poodles and Springer Spaniels at European Winner show 2016 in Brussels.

I have been President and Vice-President of Estonian Poodle club, and member of the board of Estonian Kennel Union. At the moment I am the President of Estonian Show Judges Committee since 2015.

As many other judges I look for the breed-type, harmony, movement and typical breed temperament when I judge.

I am movement-fan, no matter what breed I judge. Some judge prefer one colour to another, but for me – outstanding dog has „No colour“! 😊

Looking very much forward to my 1st judging appointment in Australia.

Mr Richard Reynolds (USA)

Richard Reynolds began his involvement with dogs in 1962 as a veterinary assistant. Since then he has owned and bred Beagles (Englandale), English Foxhounds (Plum Run), Jack Russell Terriers, Norfolk Terriers (Reynard's), Fox Terriers (Gator) and Wire Haired Dachshunds (Reynard's). In addition he has owned, shown and most importantly hunted Bedlington Terriers and Jagdterriers.

Richard was an AKC licensed professional handler and since 1981 is approved by AKC as a conformation judge of all the hound breeds, some terriers, and Best in Show and has had assignments nationally and internationally.

There have been numerous articles in dog publications which Richard authored along with specific chapters of canine reference books.

Richards' focus as a breeder and judge has always been on preserving breed type through concentration on performance ability. He was the founding Master of Foxhounds (MFH) of the only hunting pack of English Foxhounds recognized by both AKC and MFHA. Hounds from his pack have won a group at Westminster KC show, many Bests in Show, many Large Pack classes at hound shows and the occasional Grand Championship. Most important, each hound and the Jack Russell Terriers that accompanied the pack, hunted a regular 3 day a week schedule and had its turn in the conformation ring "after work."

Preserving a breed's ability to perform the work for which it was bred has been a major objective in Richards' career with purebred dogs. In addition to conformation judging he is approved by AKC, the Canadian Kennel Club and the American Working Terrier Association to judge all classes of Earthdog Tests and he is a sought-after trainer and judge across North America.

Richard is the founder and Huntsman of Ryders Alley Trencher-fed Society (R.A.T.S.), an internationally famous band of working terriers that plies their vocation patrolling the streets and alleys of New York City. The group encourages visiting terriers to try their hand at the terriers' vocation and learn from the sixty or so regular hunting terriers. The BBC has dubbed Reynolds "The Ratcatcher of New York City" The group has been featured in print the world over and a recent 2 hour documentary in China. The seminar "Fun Follows Function" is much in demand by dog clubs worldwide.

Richard Reynolds brings to the conformation ring the lessons learned firsthand in the hunt field. His priorities within a given breed are based on the qualities needed to preserve the structure and breed type needed to a dog successful.
