MS PAT CRUZ

I have been involved in the sport of dogs one way or the other since the late 50's and started breeding Miniature Poodles in the 60's. Then got my first Afghan Hound in 1965 and went on to breeding them and English Cocker Spaniels.

I began judging in 1972 and took a break while working for the AKC for 7 years as a Field Rep. I also enjoyed 20 years as a member of the Stewards Club of America. But nowadays I co-reside in New York and Mexico where I have been an All Breeds Judge since 1980.

In the late 60's I was a founding member of Owner Handler Association of America and still maintain my membership.

Along the way I began "stringing" for the New York Times, continued reporting on Dog Shows, Clubs and people when I got my own weekly column for a local newspaper. I then went on to write for the New York Post, writing for their Sports pages.

I have been a member of the Dog Writers Associating of America since 1971, and recently was inducted in to the DWAA Hall of Fame as a writer for 4 New York newspapers.

In 2012 I was elected to the American Kennel Club the Board of Directors and was re-elected to serve a 2nd term in 2016. And in 2019 I was elected the Vice Chair of the Board of Directors.
