Our JUDGE

Melissa Burton.

I began in the dog world at an early age, attending shows with my grandmother who bred and exhibited Pugs. I quickly learnt the craft and was handling her Pugs in both the conformation ring and junior handlers quite successfully.

In 1996 (at age 12), I was gifted a Cavalier King Charles Spaniel puppy from Bob Lewis and the late Dennis Moon. 'Callum' – Ch Bobden Manor Prince as he was known, was the first show dog of my very own. He taught me the art of preparing and campaigning a dog and was the catalyst for my mother, Lyndy Morris, entering the dog world.

Callum became the foundation for Coloor Cavaliers.

I assisted Lyndy in the care, preparation and handling of the Coloor Cavaliers for many years.

Today I breed and exhibit Siberian Huskies & Whippets under the Taejaan prefix but I am still currently active in the toy ring. I am campaigning 'Raffles' – Coloor Spanish Design for Lyndy and his co-owner Dianna Felton.

I am enjoying going back to my roots and am currently studying Toys in the NSW Judges Training Scheme. I am already qualified for Utility.

I recently began a new role as Veterinary Sales Manager (Hunter & Central Coast) for Nestle Purina and am looking forward to extending my passion for animal health and nutrition even further.

Thank you for the invitation to judge your open show today –I am beyond thrilled to judge a breed so close to my heart.
