

Introducing our speciality judge for Show #1

Angela Downes (Avonti)

I have had 39 consecutive years in the show world, starting out as a member of Dogs NSW in 1972, with a GSD, then on to Tasmania with a Rottweiler. By 1983 I had moved to Victoria and attended the Royal Melbourne show and was blown away with the standard poodles all sprayed up and ready for the show ring. I purchased my first standard poodle in 1984 and there began my love affair with poodles.

While standards were my main breed I also had toys and miniatures. I was taught grooming by many of the great poodle exhibitors during the late 80s and early 90s. 1989 I moved to Adelaide. I had great success with my poodles and also joined the judges training program. One of most memorable times was winning the Pal Australasian show dog of the year in 1999 with my gorgeous white Standard Poodle Bitch, Blade, which won my daughter and I a trip to Crufts. I had a break from showing while my grandson was playing football. I have been back showing for a few years now, I currently live with a miniature poodle and 3 toy poodles. I have bred many standard champions with my daughter under the Avonti prefix. We have exported dogs to USA, Sweden, and NZ and imported 3 dogs from Sweden and one from NZ. I am very much looking forward to my appointment with the Poodle Society of WA
Angela.
