The Combined Northern Canine Committee Inc. est. 1962

*The following is a history of the CNCC as recollected
by Jim Hickie.*

It is difficult to be precise about the origins of this organisation except to say that it arose from many discussions between three people - Errol Russell, John Roach and Jim Hickie.

Each of these people were very conscious of the problems in the dog world at the time. The main problems were that at a local level we had outgrown the facilities at Newcastle Showground which had been the centre for canine club activities over many years and on a more general note the training of and selection of judges was unsatisfactory and even open to manipulation.

The local dog clubs at the time were dominated by Walter Hill (Newcastle & Northern District KC) Ray Higgins (Newcastle & Merewether CCC) and George Whalley (Northern All Breeds KC) at the All Breed level.

Gradually over a period of years the three original people (Russell, Roach and Hickie) infiltrated clubs and gained sufficient support to start advocating for a dedicated dog show ground.

Around this time Maurice Le Cussan came on board. Maurice was a surveyor with BHP mines and was able to use his influence to get BHP to release twenty acres of land at Hillsborough for use as a dog training centre and show grounds.

We now needed a name and in 1968 the newly named Combined Northern Canine Committee (at the direction of the State Government) signed a lease with Lake Macquarie City Council. Later this lease was expanded to include the land adjacent to the CNCC lease and Charlestown Golf Club.

To help with finances we had been granted permission by the RAS kennel Control to run an All Breeds show which was held in January 1972 after a week of torrential rain. During the previous week we had ordered in tonnes of fill to overcome the problems of the weather. The fill was mainly ash and the consequence was that we ended up with a carpark full of bogged cars for our first show. It was a total disaster.

A local veterinarian (Dr. Peter Merkelbach) spent much of the day using his 4WD to rescue bogged vehicles.

The problems of that first show did not deter the local exhibitors who turned up to working bees to repair and enhance the grounds and more clubs joined and made donations to assist the development of the grounds.

The men mostly provided the labour for the permanent rings, roads and fencing etc. while the ladies often assisted in these tasks but also provided lunches and refreshments for the workers as well as selling raffle tickets etc.

It would be impossible to mention the names of all of the dozens of volunteers who contributed to the early development but there are a few whose contributions have become permanent features of the grounds. Among them is Jim Stobbs who spent much of his spare time crawling over the ring areas planting suitable grass. Jim also frequently manned the gate collecting admission fees on show days.

Another whose contributions helped in the development of the grounds was Ron Fraser largely responsible for toilets, the canteen building and later the caretaker flat and bridge over the creek.

Prior to the 1970s the local dog scene was largely fragmented but the advent of the CNCC brought the local dog world together particularly when Bill Hawkins became President of the CNCC over a number of years.

Most of those mentioned here have since passed on but their legacy remains as the current breeders and exhibitors continue to enjoy the facilities and features introduced since the 1960s.

Over a few years the clubs that were not part of the original group joined up as they realised the advantages of having permanent show rings, not having to store show and canteen equipment in their homes and eventually having club meeting rooms as well as a dedicated canteen.

While all of these developments were taking place the CNCC started up a Judges Training Scheme (led by Maurice Le Cussan and Bill Hawkins) which was enthusiastically supported by the local exhibitors and subsequently recognised by the State administrative body (the RAS Kennel Control) and became the template for its own judges training scheme.

To maintain pressure on the RASKC the CNCC organised bus trips of supporters to the AGMs of the RASKC and ultimately had implemented some of the many administrative reforms that were needed over time.

This is but a brief summary of the early development of the CNCC over more than fifty years which includes many innovations such as the first dedicated all breeds dog show and training grounds in Australia - a few breed specialty clubs mostly in other states did have their own grounds.

Today all state administrations do have their own grounds and administration centres and through the ANKC determine how dog judges are trained and elevated.

January 2022 will see the 50th anniversary of that first show in the name of the CNCC which was later granted affiliation with the RAS Kennel Control.

The CNCC continues today to provide show facilities and dog training through its member clubs. The club delegates meet monthly where matters of common interest are discussed and implemented.

The CNCC Honour Roll

It is with pleasure today the Executive and Committee of the CNCC unveil an Honour Roll for the ever hard working people who have contributed to these grounds.

The CNCC grounds were the first of its kind in Australia.

Many would not know the origins of the CNCC & the grounds & the efforts that have been put into this area going back to 1962. With the grounds being self funded It is a truly magnificent effort to have the wonderful grounds we all enjoy and exhibit on today.

This Honour Roll will be a lasting tribute and I am sure will continue to grow.

Although the grounds were here the CNCC did not start having shows until 50 years ago and today we celebrate the CNCCs 50th Anniversary of shows on the grounds, with the opening of the venue being in January 1972.

Originally there were a few All Breeds Clubs availing themselves of the ground but then over time newer Clubs formed and now utilise the facilities, having become affiliated with the CNCC. We now have about 40 different clubs, including All Breeds Clubs, Specialty Clubs, & Obedience Club that call Hillsborough Home.

Below are the initial names to be placed on the Honour Roll to be located on the office building. A few of these names will also appear on the rings as a further acknowledgement of their contribution.
